

SANGER INDIANS

[illegible]

100 Indian Lane
Sanger, TX 76266
(940)458-7497
Enrollment: 801

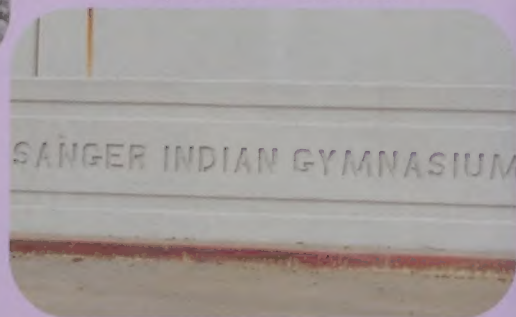

We all know that Sanger has tons of places to eat. Some of the most notable include Miguelito's, Senior Savannah Hutchins' favorite, and Freshman Jarrett Scribner's favorite, Babe's.

Sanger can be called many things. "Small" -Kalli Smith (Freshman) "Historic" -Caroline Bounds (Freshman) but most of all, "Home" -Melott.

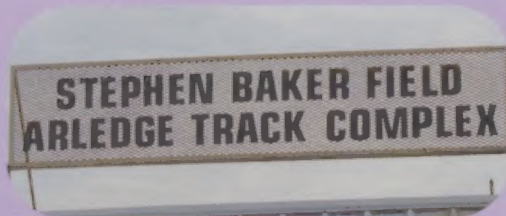

February of 2014 was very memorable. One of the worst ice storms to hit Sanger put us out of school for a week. To pass the time, we came up with a lot of creative ideas. Some people got pulled around behind a Ranger on a trash can lid, while others, like Senior Erick Tovar, had to go to work anyway.

Middle school was an interesting time for all of us. The awkward, but fun dances were a staple in all of our memories. "When I was in 6th grade, we got invited to go to a dance with the middle schoolers. That was fun! I felt like I was around the cool kids," Mayte Duran, Senior, recalls.

Many new people have shown up in Sanger since we were in Kindergarten, and first impressions are key. Mr. Whiteside described Sanger as "comfy". Nate Gray, a senior, thought Sanger was "exciting" because "the square" really interested and intrigued my childish nature. Also, the library was really cool."

After school traffic is horrendous, but we all have to go through it at some point. Sanger has the luck to have the world's worst red light, but the trains are just as bad.

"The trains are the worst!"

They always come when I need to get home quickly!"

Senior Tori

Rowell claims,

but Margarita

Gomez, also a senior says, "The red light is worse,

it takes forever and, even when it turns green, it only lets a few people through.

The best part about summer is the places you go and the people you see. Places like Studio B in Nashville where Morgan Horst stood in the exact spot Elvis did while recording songs. Or going to England, or France, or even Holland, like Caitlin Palmertree! But sadly it does all come to an end and school comes along and you're left with fun memories and ideas of where to go next summer.. like Italy.. or Disney World...

LAST FIRST DAY

"I had mixed emotions about my last first day because I'll miss the teachers." - Lilliana Contreras

Daily Life

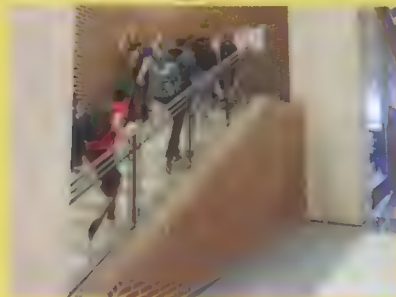

Teachers play a major role in our lives. Jaret Gillum, a senior, said his most influential teacher was Mrs. Danner because she "always seemed to have a song that would help you learn the subject faster."

What is one thing that every high-schooler has in common? The halls. So many different people all trying to get to class, something interesting is bound to happen. "Everyday, I walk around the halls, looking for good pictures. I saw a lot of interesting things. The most interesting however, was probably a game of leap frog taking place during class."

High school is a place filled with embarrassing moments. When asked about her most shameful moment a senior explained the time she fell down the stairs. "My sophomore year, on my birthday, I fell down the main staircase. My friend was the only one that saw it, but she has a picture. It was really embarrassing."

Everybody's favorite time of the day had to be lunch. You got a break from classes, and got to sit with your friends. "My favorite school lunch was probably the calzones," Garrett Traugher (9) claimed, "they were fairly big for their price and they tasted really good."

Anna Wilson 11th grade

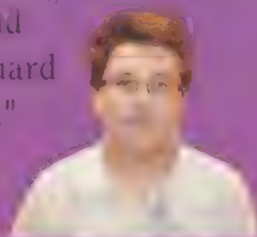

I play the trumpet in band and I help out around the library as an aide. I like to spend my time reading and writing comic books.

around school...

Jacob Wasser 10th grade

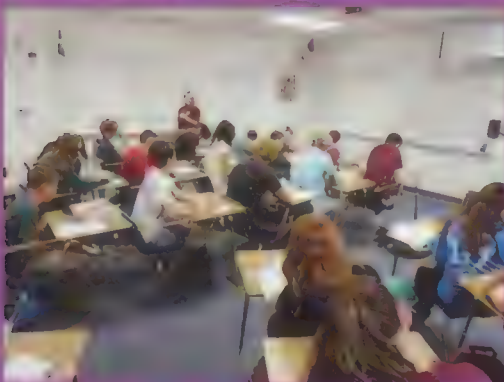

"I play the trombone in band. When there is nothing to do, I use my phone or computer. I like to play video games, watch T.V., eat... A lot.. and play my Vanguard training cards."

Students spend most of their day working in class or traversing crowded hallways just trying to beat the bell to get to their next class. If they aren't too busy with all their class work, they are reading books in the library, or they are working on projects for their next class.

With all these new drivers getting their licences, there is going to be less room in the parking lot.

Alice Vince 9th grade

"I just do powerlifting, and I play in band. I also like to run and play the piano."

We've Got Spirit

When the gym is vibrating with the music of the band and the stands are full of chanting students, it can only mean one thing: there's a pep rally! Whenever the varsity football team had a home game the student body would fire them up with music, games, speeches, and cheers.

"My favorite part is seeing everyone in the school get together to show their spirit."

SPIRIT DAY

Homecoming Parade

The importance of the Homecoming parade is for the town of Sanger 'Merica to get the opportunity to come together as one and celebrate the Homecoming of Sanger Graduates. This day is very special to many as we all line up on the streets from babies to grandparents - just about everyone is there! As the parade begins, noise and cheers fill the small town streets of Sanger, children become overjoyed when candy begins to pour and fill their tiny hands. The parents wave with pride as their child slowly floats by and maybe even shed a tear as they see their child getting older. This gathering builds us as a family and community.

Sanger Sellabration

Cheer gathers together for a quick smile.

Megaphones stand ready to pump up the crowd.

Zach Saxer drips and smiles after a turn at the dunk booth.

Clarissa Rios stands by old fashioned car.

Students participate in pie eating contest.

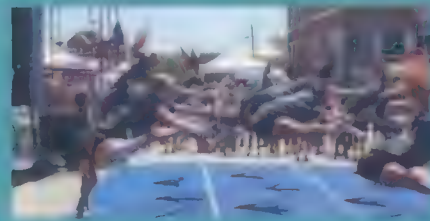

"My favorite part of the dunking booth was when the little kids got excited to throw and even when they missed, they ran up and hit it."
-Turner Barnes (Senior)

"My favorite part of performing was showing everyone in Sanger what we can do and making a great start to our season!"
-Breanne Burleson (Senior)

Cheer Explosion-Senior Surge

"Did you see anything funny?"
"No, the only thing we saw funny was ourselves!" -Cory Ritzel, Logan Sanford (Seniors)

Freshmen Football

Back: Tyler Watts, Brandon Henderson, Enric Puig, Caleb Freeman, Drake Phillips, Bryce Petty, Hank Lemons, Dillon Wilkerson, Erik Ly, Cole Mathes, Landry Hoskins, LJ Rios, Phelan Graham
Front: Bailey Vrba, Charlie Garcia, Drake Miller, Cade Hamilton, Cade Pennington, Mason Holzer, Dusty Hull, Kenny Watson, Vince Nolte, Brock Petty, Damian Echols, Aaron Juarez

The freshmen football team had a great season this year, ending it with a 6-2 record. This team made up of only freshmen are very close and when we asked #7 Dalton Adams what his team meant to him he explained to us that "the team is like my second family." This team means everything to these boys. They practiced, played, and worked hard every early morning and every late Thursday night to play the sport they love and represent Sanger High School.

JV Football

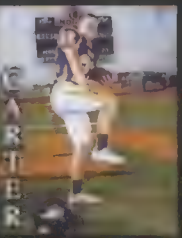

Back: Luke Pennington, Baron Bailey, Colten Henry, Nathan Link, Robert Phillips, Hunter Looper, Justin Maples, Alec Reynolds, Dakota Hopson, Zack Farris, Trevor Newton
Middle: Ethan Faircloth, Zach Allison, Cameron Robare, Jacob McDaniel, Travis Dunn, Matthew Strauser, Samuel Stroud, Blake Waters, Mike Selby, Anthony Hacker
Front: Larry Ayala, Juan Martinez, Victor Jacquez, Zuy Saenz, Cole Grace, Zane Walden, Griffyn Welborn, Tanner McQuien, Garrett Windham, Eli Sparks, Mickey Sykes

The Junior Varsity team had a great season this year. They went 7-1 and worked very hard to get that record. "The team is everything" - Alec Reynolds (Junior) said. The Junior Varsity worked together this year to make the Varsity better. If the Sanger Indian Varsity team did not have the Junior Varsity then Varsity would not have made it as far as they did. It was a very good season and many more to come.

First row: Alexis Martinez, Levi Reasor, Addison Jones, Brooklyn Halley

They do it all, from hydrating the athletes to giving them treatments to get better. Some of the trainers are there because they have a passion to help people like Alexis Martinez does or Courtneylee Conroy wants experience in the medical field. They have some ups and downs, downs being you can see some pretty gnarly injuries, like 'Tre'von's ankle last year' or a broken bone. But on the up side its kind of like 'one big family' and they get to "know more people in their grade".

Ladies And Gentlemen
 Ladies and Gentlemen, we are pleased to present to you a musical production of a play that is both a comedy and a tragedy. The play is a story of love, death, and the power of the human spirit. It is a story that has inspired generations of artists and audiences alike. We are proud to bring this story to you in a new and exciting way. We hope you will enjoy it as much as we enjoyed bringing it to life.

Robert Sikora
Asst Principal

This year has been fantastic! Everyone is working hard and working together, which, has brought many success stories.

Jeremy Greenway
Asst Principal

2015-2016 Was a wonderful school year. It was great to see so many different success in Academics, Fine Arts, and Athletics. The involvement and focus from the student body this year will be one to remember.

Jona Gillum
11/12 Counselor

It has been a joy to return to Sanger High, my alma mater. I have always been an Indian fan, but now I get to know more of the students and help them explore their plans for the future.

One word to describe this school year...

Melott

What makes this year different from other school years? It's weird this year because it is the first year in eight years I don't have a kid in the school.

Hewlett

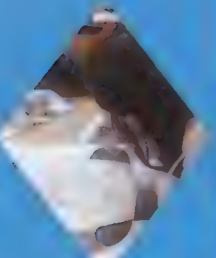

Over the years, has your job gotten more or less stressful? More! The school has grown, there's more to do, and now I have to do attendance too

Danner

Over the years, has your job gotten more or less stressful? More. There's more paperwork, more testing, the requirements for teaching are more rigorous, and overall students expect to get things they don't want to work for. Not all, but a lot.

WELCOME FALL

"There is something about the fall season that makes it feel like a new beginning. It's a time when the leaves are changing, the air is crisp, and the sun is shining. It's a time when we can all start fresh and begin our journey towards a better future. Welcome to the fall season, and welcome to the PALS team!"

This year the Varsity girls had a record of 30 and 5 and went into the third round of playoffs, but lost the last game of the season to Dallas Lincoln. It was a hard loss, but they had a great season. With it being Coach Tracy Sykes' first year at Sanger High School, she sure made a difference. The seniors will be missed by the whole team.

"We had a good team, great coaches, and a good season!"~ Riley Gibson (9)

Mr. SICS

JARROD HUTHER DARBY DEAN

It was an evening full of talent, laughs, and sharp suits on the night Sanger High's most eligible bachelors took the stage to compete for the title of Mr. SHS. The ten contestants modeled their casual and beach wear before blowing away the audience with their unique talents. There was singing, dancing, music playing and even magic tricks. At the end of the show the three judges decided, after much consideration, to crown Mr. Jarrod Huther the winner of the contest.

The Unexplainable of SHS

Looks like someone was having fun with Photoshop on Brandon!

Only at SHS will you see Tanner getting duct-taped to the wall and liking it! "Feels great!"

Who is that masked man?

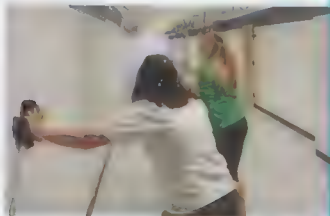

After a hard day, the only comfort is a blanket fort!

Not really sure why Ryan is posing as a princess, but he looks PRETTY happy!

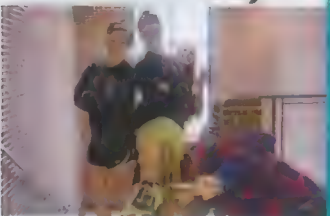

Patrick, why did you walk around the school in a box? "To make people smile."

We are proud of you and your many accomplishments. God has richly blessed us through you.

Love, Gram and Uncle Kevin

While I'm in heaven and you carry on just know that I am looking down smiling at you. I know the huge obstacles you have overcome to get to where you are today. You were my ray of sunshine while on earth and that continues while I'm in heaven.

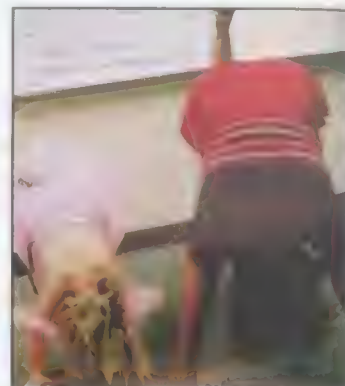

Love, Pa

Brandi Stalder

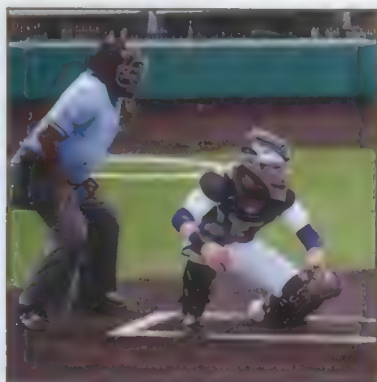

Wow, where has the time gone? It has been such a blessing getting to watch you grow from that precious little girl into the amazing young lady you are today. You are beautiful inside and out! I am so proud of all your accomplishments - your academics, cross country, and track. I am so proud of you and excited to see where this next chapter in your life leads you.

I love you,
Aunt Sylvia

Senior Ads 2016

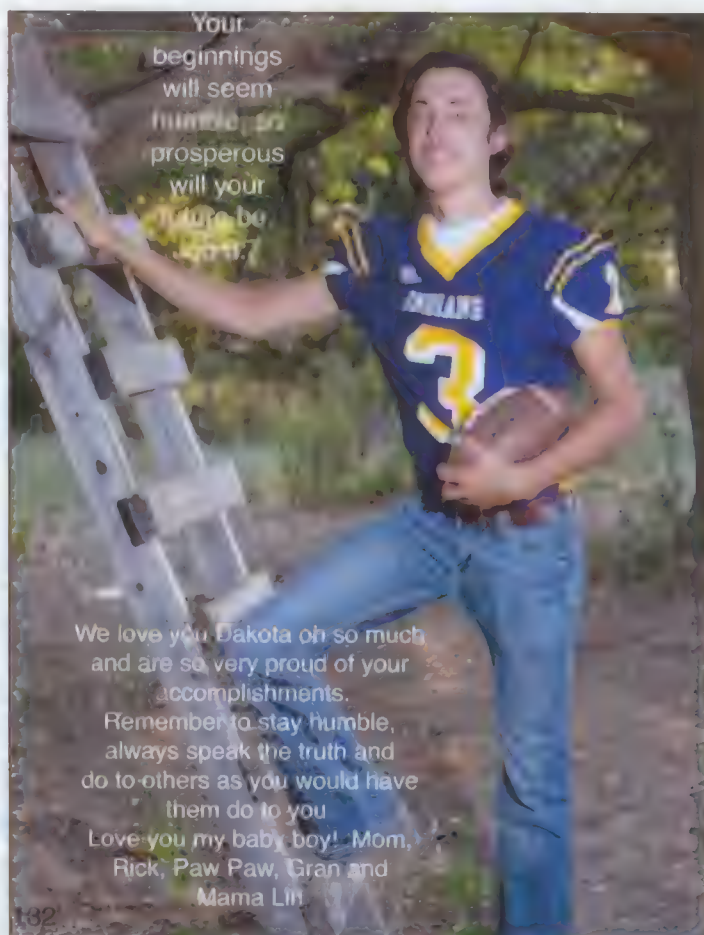

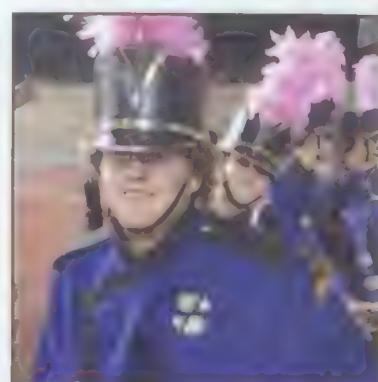

Even though not everyone is pictured here in the ads, all of our seniors have worked hard and deserve recognition for their achievements and for reaching this milestone! We love their ambition, humor, personalities, and smiles. Good luck and have fun, guys!

Alexander Brinkley-Schenk

It seems like just yesterday you were this tiny little baby and now you are all grown up. Time goes by so fast! We all love you very much and are so proud of you! Love you always and forever, Mom, Dad, Daphne, Granny and Grandpa Phil.

Your beginnings will seem humble, as prosperous will your future be.

We love you Dakota oh so much and are so very proud of your accomplishments.

Remember to stay humble, always speak the truth and do to others as you would have them do to you.

Love you my baby boy! Mom, Rick, Paw Paw, Gran and Mama Lin.

KELTON DAKOTA

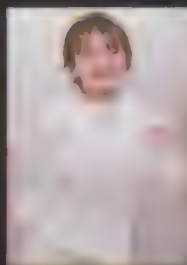

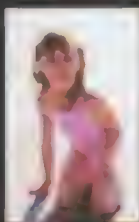

We can't believe you're already graduating high school little bro. Seems like just yesterday you were 4 feet tall. Keep working hard and you're gonna be great at whatever you decide to do. We love you and want you to know we are proud to be your big brothers. Love, Coulton and Triston

Your fascination with horses began when you were really little—so many carousel and pony rides, your bedroom was adorned with Breyer horses, horse posters and pictures, and a pony was always at the top of your Christmas list. Your obsession continued through the years, with American Girl horses, horse t-shirts, horse games on the playground, until you finally got a horse of your own. Your horse addiction is for real, it's in your blood. Growing up with horses has taught you to love, to be compassionate, patient and nurturing, independent and responsible. You are everything we could hope for in a daughter/grand-daughter. You are so special to us and we are excited for what the future holds.

Congratulations!

We love you Rea!

What's Hot right now at Sanger High School?

We took a look around to find out what's popular with our students!

For footwear, Converse, Jandals, Booties, and Nike tennis shoes heavily outnumbered other brands of shoes on feet traveling the halls.

Comfy seems to be key for those wearing their favorite flannels and their pull-over Ponchos. Leggings and Buc-ee's T-shirts are a major staple in closets this year!

In order to add flash and flare, girls looped Kendra Scott necklaces around their necks and hooked earrings in their ears. Boys and girls alike are sporting watches on their wrists: Apple and analog!

Getting in shape seems to be quite in style with all the Fitbits that can be spotted on students and teachers alike (Mrs. Parham has one she checks regularly!).

Lady Indians are double braiding their hair & filling in their eyebrows, while our gents are sporting everything from buzz cuts to shaggy-dos.

And lastly? Check out the variety of filters you can add to your Snapchat pics! You can be a puppy, a monkey, have giant bugged-out eyes, or even trade faces with a bud!

This tennis season was a really interesting adventure. We won some; we lost... most of them, but that never stopped us from having fun. It was a really great few months, and we made lots of great memories. There were struggles that we all overcame, and Coach Nini showed us how to keep going. He made this season so great for us, and I cannot be more thankful for that. Tournaments and bus rides were always an adventure, and we'll never forget it.
